The Public Health Emergency Preparedness and Response team of the Brazoria County Health Department is working with cities throughout Brazoria County to offer free 2009 H1N1 influenza vaccinations to the public. The following programs have been scheduled:

Freeport – Thursday, January 21 from 4:00-7:30 p.m. at River Place

Lake Jackson – Saturday, January 23 from 1:00-6:00 p.m. at the Brazos Mall

Pearland – Saturday, January 30, from 10 a.m.-2:00 p.m. at the old Glenda Dawson High School

Angleton – Saturday, February 6, from 10 a.m.-2:00 p.m. at Angleton High School

West Columbia—Tuesday, February 9, from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. at the West Columbia Civic Center

Alvin – Saturday, February 13, from 10 a.m.-2:00 p.m. at Alvin Community College

Go to www.brazoriacountyflu.com to download the forms required to be vaccinated, complete them, and bring them to the vaccination program. This website will be updated as information changes and as additional programs are scheduled.

If you would like to volunteer at one or more of these programs, you may contact your city's emergency manager or call Stephanie Smith at Public Health Emergency Preparedness and Response at (979) 864-1166.
