

“Brazoria County Hurricane Seminars”

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 2, 2011

The Brazoria County Preparedness Committee will be hosting six (6) hurricane seminars throughout the county during the month of June. Each of these seminars will last approximately 90 minutes. You will hear from the Mayors, Emergency Management Coordinators, The National Weather Service, local drainage districts, and The County Emergency Management Office at each of these seminars. Some seminars may have exhibitors and special guests attending to speak on issues specific to your community.

Some of the topics being discussed are:

- Being prepared when officials recommend evacuation
- Evacuation HUB and destinations
- What to expect if you do not evacuate
- When you should return
- National Weather Service Update for 2011

There will also be time for questions and answers at the end of each seminar.

Preparedness is the key to protecting you and your family. Please plan on attending one of these seminars and becoming informed.
